breeding trip. That sounds very (3) farm-wise doesn't it. I wish it had been you & I. In the afternoon directly after dinner as soon as we had changed our chivalrous clothes we all walked to the best farm taking also Tim Beauty & the 1000 glaucous Pat on 5 with Turner which they had asked if they might bring with them, very like Tim. It was 8 miles then, & back but it was splendid weather & we all enjoyed it. I was in the tree cut me the 4000 was Mrs H but it did not do us any harm. I should not have liked it on a trot lap. My player the question game in the cherished I sang some and looked at Eleanor's picture. She left this morning on the 7.35. I did not know he was going on that train till he was gone. I wish I did. I wish.
She & I went to the village this morn-and this afternoon to New Cagnan stopping to see the place they had built. It was a fine place. I wish about 6 miles from here. I thought
